PENINSULA CONFLICT RESOLUTION CENTER

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY SMALL GROUP FACILITATORS FOR HOUSING

The Organization

The Peninsula Conflict Resolution Center(PCRC) is a nonprofit communication and dispute resolution organization. We are dedicated to helping clients solve their most complex personal, organizational, and social challenges. Our collaborative philosophy largely builds on an interest-based approach to conflict resolution. Through our initiatives, we engage the community and we empower youth through dialogues, trainings, and conflict resolution coaching.

PCRC recruits, trains, and supports volunteers to provide an array of community engagement services. PCRC is committed to building a strong coalition of volunteers from diverse backgrounds and experiences.

The Position

PCRC is looking for volunteers to facilitate small group conversations with community members about housing issues and possible solutions. The conversations will take place in the Spring and Fall of 2019 and will be held in the following cities: San Mateo, Brisbane, Pacifica, Foster City and Hillsborough. No facilitation experience is necessary, but it is an asset if you have it! Training will begin in February and dialogues are expected to begin in March/April. This is a great opportunity for someone looking to make an impact on their community and develop meeting management skills!

Volunteers will need to:

- Participate in a facilitation training.
- Feel comfortable speaking to a group.
- Take notes and collect feedback.
- Remain neutral in occasionally contentious discussions.
- Be flexible and ready to lead with humility.
