AustenFest Film Series

Three Wednesday Evenings in March
San Mateo Main Library, Oak Room, 6:00 p.m.

Wednesday, March 4
Bride and Prejudice

Based on Jane Austen's novel, Pride and Prejudice, with a Bollywood twist. In Amritsar, the determined Mrs. Bakshi sets out to find matches for her daughters. Second sister, Lalita, meets American Will Darcy - is it love? 2004; Rated PG-13; 111 minutes.

Wednesday, March 11
Amazing Grace

William Wilberforce and William Pitt begin a lengthy battle to abolish Great Britain's slave trade. 2006; Rated PG; 118 minutes.

Wednesday, March 18
Mansfield Park

Fanny Price, a poor relation, goes to live at Mansfield Park, the estate of her aunt's husband where she'll be brought up for a proper introduction to society. 1999; Rated PG-13; 112 minutes.

These films are a prelude to the AustenFest event to be held at the Main Library on March 22.

Co-Sponsor: The Jane Austen Society of North America, Northern California Region

San Mateo Public Library
55 West Third Avenue, San Mateo, CA 94402
650-522-7818 • www.smplibrary.org
@SanMateoPublicLibrary @smplibrary