

CITY OF SAN MATEO MINIMUM WAGE ORDINANCE

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is the City of San Mateo Minimum Wage Ordinance and how does this affect my business?

The San Mateo City Council adopted an ordinance to create a City minimum wage. The ordinance requires employers that maintain a place of business in the City of San Mateo or perform any work/service within the City limits to pay the City's minimum wage to its employees (as defined by State law). The ordinance went into effect on January 1, 2017.

What is the Minimum Wage in the City of San Mateo?

The minimum wage increases on January 1st of every year and is adjusted based on the regional Consumer Price Index (CPI) up to a maximum increase of 3.5% in a given year. Starting on January 1, 2023, all employers are required to pay employees $16.75 per hour.

Does the Minimum Wage apply elsewhere within the County of San Mateo?

No, the City of San Mateo minimum wage only applies to employees who work within the geographic boundaries of the City of San Mateo.

There are several Minimum Wage laws: Federal, State, and City of San Mateo. What is the difference and which one applies to local businesses?

City of San Mateo employers are subject to Federal, State and San Mateo minimum wage laws. When there are conflicts in the laws, the employer must follow the strictest standard, meaning that employers must follow the standard that is most favorable to the employee. Since the City of San Mateo's ordinance is higher than the State and Federal law, covered employers are required to pay the City's minimum wage. State and federal agencies, including school districts, are not required to pay the City's minimum wage when the work performed is related to their governmental function.
